

THE KENNA RECORD.

VOL. 10.

KENNA, CHAVES COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY,

MAY 12, 1916.

NO. 13.

Steady Influx of Settlers.

The records of the U. S. Commissioner's office at this place show over one hundred applications for homestead entry for the past 12 months ending May 1, 1916, and all with but one exception have been allowed. None of these filings were on newly surveyed or newly opened land, they were all on the older settled part that has been subject to entry for years. The twelve months ending May 1st, 1915, gave this office about fifty filings. The year ending May 1st, 1914 gave this office only twenty three, and the year ending May 1, 1913, only show twelve applications for entry, not including old settlers under the squatters right, who filed as they were permitted.

During 1911, 1912 and 1913 the people were leaving here going east. There were no new people scarcely coming in. But since that time immigration to this part has been steady.

The above figures cover only the work done at this office which constitutes only a small part of the filing in the north half of Chaves Co., and the southern part of Roosevelt county.

Cattle Shipments Will Be Unusually Heavy

Albuquerque, N. M., May 5.—That cattle shipments from New Mexico will be unusually heavy this spring is indicated by calls for stock cars made already, with four heavy shipments known to be intending to send out stock who have not called for cars as yet. The total number of cars called for up to the present for May shipments on the Santa Fe alone is 353 cars, of which 145 are 40 foot cars and the remainder thirty-five foot cars.

The largest single order is that of a Denver man, who called for 75 forty foot cars at San Marcial on May 15. The smallest is for ten thirty-six foot cars called for at Magdalena by an Albuquerque firm.

Record Price Paid For Stocker Calves

Another record was smashed on the Fort Worth market Thursday morning when a straight load of stocker calves was sold at $10.10 per hundred weight.

The previous high record was $10, which occurred only a few days ago.

The stocker calf market here is very high and producers have been securing excellent returns by shipping here.—Star-Telegram.

The Kenna Record, 1 yr. $1.00
The Sunday Roswell Star 1 yr. .50
Both papers one year for $1.25

Few of Unmixed Descent.
Only one-tenth of the population of this country is of unmixed descent.

Again the Record finds it necessary to consign to the waste basket a contribution which did not have the writer's name signed to it. We do not publish the names of our correspondents, but in no case will we publish an article that is not signed. We are glad to have a good and interesting correspondent from each part of the county, one who will give the real news of that community. But in each case the writer must sign his or her name. Then if it is preferred by the writer the name will be withheld.

The editor frequently finds it necessary to use the "Blue Pencil" pretty freely on some correspondents for the reason that they insist on giving their neighbor a "slap". This never buys the writer any thing, for all such remarks are cut out and are never published. If you have anything to say about your neighbor, have man enough about you to go to him personally and say it to his face. Don't think for a minute that the Record is going to carry your insults around to him and then stand between you and the club.

Oklahoman Charged With Forcing His Young Wife Into a Life of Shame

Santa Fe, N. M., May 4.—A revolting charge is faced today in federal court by Emmitt Goodin, of Alma, Oklahoma, who is accused of violating the white slave act by inducing his own wife to enter a life of prostitution. The fact that his wife, Mrs. Maude Goodin, who was a witness against the defendant this morning, is not yet 16 years of age and is rather attractive in appearance with a girlish manner, makes the case almost unparalleled in the history of white slave prosecutions.

Goodin was indicted about a month ago by the federal grand jury which met in this city.

U. S. District Attorney Summers Barkhart is representing the government and Attorney William J. Barker, of this city, by appointment of the court, is defending Goodin.

There were only a few people in court when Mrs. Goodin took the witness stand this morning. She testified that she was married to defendant on her fifteenth birthday, which fell on September 11, 1915, having had the consent of her parents. She said she left Alma, Oklahoma, on the following day, traveling by team with her husband into King county, Texas, where a halt was made to work picking cotton. She testified that soon afterward her husband had induced her to enter a life of prostitution. The next witness was J. G. McGhee, court stenographer, of Roswell, who had taken down the testimony at the hearing given given Goodin when he was accused of murdering a man named Burleson in January of this year, of which charge he was later acquitted. Only a portion of McGhee's testimony was admitted.

Tom Calloway of Four Lakes, N. M., was the third witness. He testified he had seen the Goodins traveling through the state and said that Goodin had solicited him to have improper relations with Mrs. Goodin.

It is thought that the taking of testimony will be concluded this afternoon.

Fred E. Dennis, an official of the department of justice, is here from Clovis on the case, as he had attended the preliminary hearing given Goodin, at Roswell.

Later:—Goodin was found guilty by the jury in ten minutes deliberation and was sentenced by Judge Pope to four years in the penitentiary and pay the expense of the trial.

Closing Exercises

The Big Valley School will close on Friday, May 19, with dinner on the ground and a program in the afternoon about 2.30. Ice cream will be served in the afternoon.
